

REVISION OF UNIT 6

II. Reading:

-Amelia Earhart-

Amelia Mary Earhart was born in 1897 in Kansas, a state located in the Midwestern United States. She showed an early aptitude for science and sports at school. After finishing school, she worked as a nurse for the Red Cross where she got to know many of the wounded pilots and came to admire aviation. Earhart enrolled in medical studies at Columbia University, but quit after one year and soon started taking flying lessons. In 1928 she became the first woman to fly across the Atlantic Ocean and the first person to fly over both the Atlantic and Pacific. She set many other records and wrote best-selling books about her flying experiences. She also contributed to the formation of The Ninety-Nines, an organisation for female pilots, gave advice to women on careers and helped inspire others. In 1937, she mysteriously disappeared during a flight. Even today, her life and career remain fascinating to many people.

Revision the skills UNIT 7

Reading:

Read a text about common wedding rituals in the USA and answer the questions that follow.

Common wedding rituals in the USA

Being a country of different cultural races, there is a great variety of wedding styles in the United States. However, the majority of weddings nowadays still follow a number of traditions. One of the traditions dating back to the nineteenth century is about what a bride should wear on her wedding day. It is commonly believed that on her wedding day, the bride should carry with her something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue. This is because each of these things has a special meaning for the bride on this big day.

When a bride wears something old, it reminds her of her family and the past. Thus, some brides may wear their mother's wedding dress or a piece of her jewellery.

Something new that the bride wears means good luck and hope for a happy future with her husband. This new item is usually a pair of new shoes, or it can be the wedding dress or something else.

When the bride wears something borrowed, it symbolizes the help and support she gets from her friends and her family whenever she needs it. An example of something borrowed can be a married friend's bridal veil or a friend's handkerchief.

Sometimes blue means trust and faith between the bride and the groom. Nowadays, some brides are creative with this item. For example, they may have their fingernails painted blue. Nevertheless, the most popular blue item is the garter that the bride wears on her leg.

Things are changing fast these days, however, the rituals about what the bride should wear on her wedding day remain kept strictly by a lot of women in the USA.

1. When did the tradition about what the bride should wear on her wedding day start?

- A. From the 8th century
- B. From the 9th century
- C. From the 18th century
- D. From the 19th century

2. What might the bride wear to remind her of her family and the past?

- A. Her mother's wedding dress
- B. A pair of new shoes

C. A friend's handkerchief D. A blue garter

3. Which item symbolizes good luck and hope for a happy future?

A. Something old B. Something new C. Something borrowed D. Something blue

4. When the bride wears something borrowed, what does it symbolise?

A. Her past memories B. Her wish for a better future

C. Support from her family and friends

D. The trust and faith between the bride and groom

Part 2. Read the passage and choose the correct answer

Kwanzaa is a holiday celebrated by many African Americans from December 26 to January 1. It pays tribute to the rich cultural roots of Americans of African ancestry, and celebrates family, community, and culture. Kwanzaa means the first or the first fruits of the harvest and is based on the ancient African first-fruit harvest celebrations.

The modern holiday of Kwanzaa was founded in 1966 by Dr. Maulana Karenga, a professor at the California State University in Long Beach, California. This seven-day celebration encourages people to think about their African roots as well as their life in present-day America.

The seven fundamental principles on which Kwanzaa is based are referred to as the Nguzo Saba. These rules consist of unity, self-determination, collective work and responsibility, cooperative economics, purpose, creativity, and faith. Participants celebrate by performing rituals such as lighting the kinara. The kinara is symbolic of the continental Africans. Each of its seven candles represents a distinct principle beginning with unity, the black center candle. Talking with family, drumming, singing, and dancing are all part of the celebration activities.
